DEAL OVERVIEW

Rome is gorgeous in the summertime, with its outdoor cafes, bustling piazzas, and seemingly endless supply of gelato. Just because you can't jet off to the ancient Italian capital this summer doesn't mean that you can't create your own Roman holiday in the Big Apple! Jump-start your plans the best way possible with a gelato workshop at Mia Chef Gelateria.

Located in Gramercy, Mia Chef Gelateria is a gourmet gelato café that focuses on delivering its customers an authentic Italian experience through their tastebuds. From its interior space inspired by the rustic, volcano town of Orvieto in Italy's Umbria region, to the delightful coffee beverages served up at its espresso bar, to—of course—its creamy, rich gelato. With flavors ranging from traditional, like Sicilian Pistachio and Madagascar Vanilla, to exotic combinations such as Chocolate Whiskey Truffles and Raspberry Panna Cotta, Mia has something for every palette.

From the ingredients to freezing to eating, learn the ins-and-outs of the gelato-making process in one of Mia's two-hour gelato workshops, for just $60 (regularly $120 per person). The best part is, you get to take home four pints of your finished product after the class!

While it may not be that total escape to Rome, each taste of your gelato will remind you of the Italian experience you had at Mia Chef Gelateria...without the jet lag, of course!
