You may be an expert at climbing the corporate ladder or an experienced social climber, but what about conquering a 30-foot indoor rock wall? At Island Rock, walls built by Solid Rock Wall Systems merge the feel of real rock-climbing with the safety of indoor systems. With difficulty levels ranging from beginner-level scaling to heart-pumping expert ascents, you will have a chance to see exactly what sort of climber you are with this $20 deal for a Quickstart Climbing Package for at Island Rock!

This Quickstart Climbing Package is perfect for first-time rock climbers as well as more experienced rockjocks. You'll receive a shoe rental, ensuring you have the best grips for your climb, plus lessons on how to properly wear the harness, how to tie into the rope, and proper belaying technique.

Best of all, once your lesson is over, you'll get to use your knowledge to take advantage of the included day pass. That's right; climb to your heart's desire - or your muscles' limits - all day long.

Island Rock usually offers this Quickstart Package for $43, already a great deal for those looking to be a different kind of rock star. But when you get to the top of the wall, you'll flex your muscles a little easier knowing you got this package for less than half what they paid. With this $20 Deal of the Day, you'll get an amazing workout and become an indoor rock climbing champion while saving a small mountain of money.
