Pitch-black

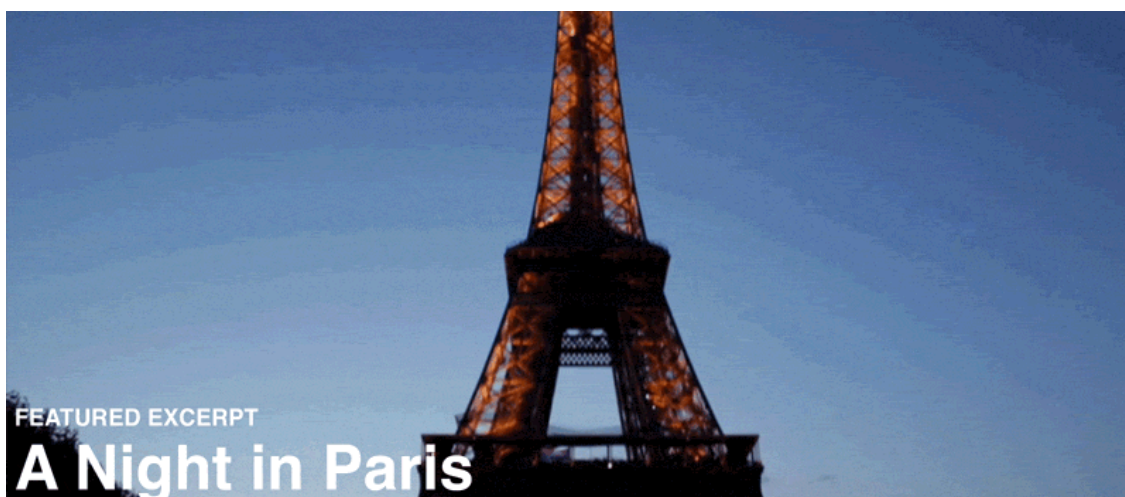

“My thoughts come back to the plane. Time is creeping by. When I have made it through twenty minutes, there is still no evidence of a descent.”

A riveting, inspirational true story of an incredibly resilient woman who broke professional barriers as a Dutch banker, was the sole survivor of Vietnam Airlines Flight 474, found love after the loss of her fiancé, and continues to raise her autistic son, never wavering in

This is an inspiring account of one woman's journey and perseverance, as a plane-crash survivor and even more so as a devoted mother to her autistic son, but also of discovering strength and beauty in unexpected places.

“It would help if you did not think of it as magic. M certainly had long ceased to do so.”

Enter a world of Wall Street wolves, slumming scenesters, desperate artists, drug-induced shops. M's New York, the infinite nexus of the universe, really is a city that never sleeps—but is always dreaming.
